http://planpub.eppingforestdc.gov.uk/AniteIM.websearch/ExternalEntryPoint.aspx?SEARCH_TYPE=1&DOC_CLASS_CODE=PL&FOLDER1_REF=527969

Members were concerned that a building relatively recently constructed for the purposes of agriculture was no longer required for such purposes. Although the proposal was found to be an appropriate re-use of a redundant barn, they were concerned that the loss of the barn may generate a proposal for a new barn in the future that could be permitted development.

Members took the view that it was necessary and reasonable to exercise proper planning control over such proposals to ensure the openness of the Green Belt is preserved and to ensure that any such building permitted is demonstrably necessary for the purposes of agriculture on the land. Members made it clear they wished to avoid a future scenario where a building erected for such purposes could become surplus relatively early in the overall life of the building.
