Summary of Issue you wish to be scrutinised:
The Government has published a consultation paper entitled "Local Strategic Partnerships (LSP) – Shaping their future".
It contains some important proposals that will impinge on the work and structure of LSP's especially in two tier areas.
It creates greater obligations on the councils itself, and passes responsibility for the LSP as a whole to the Local Authority Executive.

Local Strategic Partnerships are described becoming more and more evident that bids Government invites etc. require the suppor community strategy. The consultation paper the lead agency in the work of LSP's and is in its activity and be accountable for what it	for external funds, responses to t of the LSP and a representative in the er makes it clear that the council is seen as s expected to take a more prominent role

Many of these areas are covered through the Local Area Agreement which the Local Strategic Partnership is expected to take a lead upon. The community strategy is to become a 'sustainable community strategy' and be closely linked to the new local development framework. All these matters are of considerable importance to the residents of Epping Forest District and seem to indicate a need for the council to take a more prominent part. Legal responsibility under the LGA 2000 rests with the council. Council Performance in this area (if known: Red, Amber, Green): There are few BUPI's in regard to the topic.
