

Transfers for Housing Management Purposes

Transfers for housing management purposes include;

- moves to facilitate major repairs or refurbishment of a property
- moves where property is required to be demolished for safety or redevelopment purposes
- moves in respect of the Council's policy for successor tenants under occupying accommodation
- other moves of a similar nature as determined by the Head of Housing Services